FILS HIGHLIGHTS

OCTOBER 2026

KAHOOT NIGHT - 2

The student associations LS FILS and Francopoly organized a Kahoot Night, marking the end of the first week of the new academic year.

WOMEN IN SECURITY - 2

Dean Maria-Iuliana Dascălu participated as a speaker at the Women in Security event, dedicated to cybersecurity, leadership and the role of women in technology.

SAP PRESENTATION - 16

Students of the Artificial Intelligence for Engineering Master's programme attended a presentation by SAP specialists on applications of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in engineering.

AI IN LEGAL OPERATIONS - 19

Odai Alokeh, FILS alumnus and founder of Devista Software, presented AI applications in the legal field to students of the Artificial Intelligence for Engineering Master's programme.

FACULTY PRESENTATION - 22

Students from Alexandru Ghica Theoretical High School in Alexandria visited FILS, discovering its educational offer, practical activities and faculty projects.

CCC - 23

The 2026 edition of the international Cloudflight Coding Contest - School Edition took place, bringing together high school students passionate about programming and algorithmic challenges.

ROBOFORGERS GENERAL ASSEMBLY - 25

The FILS robotics club RoboForgers held its first General Assembly, marking the end of the recruitment period and the integration of new team members.

ROBOFEST - 30.10-1.11

During RoboFest 2026, FILS presented its educational offer, giving visitors the opportunity to discover the faculty's study programmes and opportunities.

It FILS good to be in our community!